

EXHIBIT 6

AUDIT RIGHTS

1. ACCURACY OF RECORDS.
 - 1.1 Contractor shall keep accurate records and books of accounts showing the items and costs billed under this Contract, as well as cost data supporting the Contract proposal and/or other representations, including detailed supporting cost data for assumptions and calculation of indirect cost rates specified in the Contract. Contractor shall also maintain nonfinancial documentation and records related to Work performed hereunder but not delivered to PG&E.
 - 1.2 Contractor's books and records must provide sufficient detail to verify the charges shall include, without limitation, the following:
 - Payroll records (hours, employee name, employee classification, multiplier breakdown, etc.) that account for total time worked under the Contract;
 - Canceled payroll checks or signed receipts for cash payroll;
 - Invoices (including all back-up details) for purchases, receiving and issuing documents, and all inventory records for Contractor's stock or capital items;
 - Paid invoices and canceled checks for purchased materials, Subcontractor, and third-party charges;
 - Records relating to air freight and ground transportation, including but not limited to handling, hauling, and disposing of materials/equipment; and
 - Accurate, auditable records of gifts and entertainment to individual PG&E personnel.
2. AVAILABILITY OF RECORDS. Contractor shall preserve and make available its records and books of accounts, both manual and those which are in machine readable form (collectively, "Records"), for a period of three years from the date of final payment under this Contract. If this Contract is terminated, Contractor's Records shall be preserved and made available for a period of three years from the date of termination or of any resulting final settlement, whichever is later. Records which relate to litigation or the settlement of claims arising out of the performance of this Contract, or costs and expenses of this Contract to which exception has been taken by PG&E, shall be retained until such appeals, litigations, claims, or exceptions have been concluded.
3. AUDIT. Upon reasonable notice, PG&E or its representatives shall have the right to audit, without restrictions and at no additional cost to PG&E, at any time during normal business hours, the items and costs described in this Section, including without limitation, all fees and direct and indirect costs incurred by Contractor and billed to PG&E, to verify the rates and costs billed to PG&E hereunder are as represented by Contractor. PG&E may use recognized statistical sampling methods to determine an estimate of the total amount, if any, of PG&E overpayments or underpayments to Contractor.
4. OVERPAYMENTS. Contractor shall refund to PG&E any payments to Contractor which are not in accordance with Contract terms or are not supported by Contractor Records or other valid evidence.
5. ERRORS/IRREGULARITIES. If errors, irregularities, inaccuracies, mistakes or the like ("Errors") are discovered by audit or other means and PG&E relied upon such Errors in accepting the rates, the affected rates shall be adjusted accordingly, with such adjustment retroactive to the effective date of the Contract and any overpayments refunded to PG&E.
6. MISREPRESENTATION OF COST OR PRICING DATA. If any price, including profit or fee, negotiated in connection with this Contract, or any cost reimbursable under this Contract, was increased by any significant amount because Contractor or a Subcontractor misrepresented cost or pricing data in negotiations, the price or cost shall be reduced accordingly. This provision also applies to any future change order or modification to this Contract which involves the submission of cost or pricing data. The knowing misrepresentation of cost or pricing data by Contractor shall be considered a material breach of this Contract.
7. TRANSACTION COSTS. If an audit determines that Contractor overcharged PG&E or if Contractor knowingly submits overcharges or misrepresents cost or pricing data in any amount, Contractor agrees to reimburse PG&E both the amount of the overcharges plus PG&E's associated transaction costs, including but not limited to costs associated with the discovery and determination of the overcharge amount, the discovery of misrepresented cost or pricing data, and the quantification of any resulting overcharges.
8. INTEREST ON OVERPAYMENTS. If PG&E makes an overpayment to Contractor as a result of Contractor over billings, Contractor shall be liable to PG&E for interest on the amount of such overpayment to be computed (1) for the period beginning on the date the overpayment was made to Contractor and ending on the date Contractor repays the amount of such overpayment to PG&E, and (2) at a rate equal to the prime rate charged by the Bank of America, NT&SA, San Francisco, California.
9. SUBCONTRACTS. Contractor shall include the requirements of this Exhibit in each Subcontract.
