

ELECTRIC SCHEDULE E-FBD
SERVICE FOR QUALIFIED FOOD BANKS

Sheet 1

GENERAL Decision 18-08-013 adopted the Food Bank Discount which will be funded through the CARE surcharge component of the Public Purpose Program rate.

ELIGIBILITY: This schedule is applicable to commercial and industrial service which meets the eligibility criteria set forth in Special Condition 2 for electric service to Food Banks. This service is made available pursuant to Public Utilities Code Section 739.3. Specifically, to be eligible for this rate, food bank facilities must have executed a Memorandum of Understanding with the California Department of Social Services that qualifies them to participate in The Emergency Food Assistance Program in California.

RECERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: Food Bank Facilities will be required to certify annually their eligibility for the PG&E gas and electric Food Bank discounts by providing a copy of their Memorandum of Understanding executed with the California Department of Social Services that qualifies them to participate in The Emergency Food Assistance Program in California.

TERRITORY: Schedule E-FBD applies everywhere PG&E provides electric service.

RATES: Qualified Food Bank Facilities will pay all charges applicable on the otherwise applicable commercial rate schedule and will receive a discount as set forth below.

Customers taking service on this rate schedule will receive a 20 percent discount on their total bundled charges on their otherwise applicable rate schedule. The discount to food bank facilities will be calculated for direct access and community choice aggregation customers based on the total charges as if they were subject to bundled service rates. Discounts will be applied as a reduction to otherwise applicable rate schedule distribution charges.

BILLING: An interim manual billing solution will be leveraged to deliver an annual credit to qualified food bank customers for usage occurring in 2019, 2020, and 2021. The discount will be applied on a monthly basis for usage beginning in 2022. The monthly electric Food Bank discount will be applied on the bill of the following month. (T)
(I)
(T)

A bill message will be applied to customer bills regarding the application of the Food Bank Discount. (N)
(N)

INTERIM BILLING SOLUTION: All non-NEM customers will receive a lump sum discount on their January 2020 bill for 7 months of service from June 2019 to December 2019. Customers will receive a second and third lump sum discount on their January 2021 and January 2022 for their previous 12 months of service. (T)
(T)

Likewise, monthly billed NEM customers will receive 7 months of discounts on their January 2020 monthly true-up bill (for service from June 2019 – December 2019), and a discount in January 2021 and January 2022 for the previous 12 billing periods. (T)

Annual billed NEM customers will have the Food Bank Discount applied on their scheduled annual true-ups starting in June 2020. (D)
(D)

(Continued)

ELECTRIC SCHEDULE E-FBD
SERVICE FOR QUALIFIED FOOD BANKS

Sheet 2

SPECIAL CONDITIONS:

1. OTHERWISE APPLICABLE SCHEDULE: The Special Conditions of the Customer's otherwise applicable rate schedule will apply to this schedule.
2. ELIGIBILITY: To be eligible to receive the E-FBD, the applicant must have executed a Memorandum of Understanding with the California Department of Social Services that qualifies them to participate in The Emergency Food Assistance Program in California. Qualifying Direct Access, Community Choice Aggregation Service, and Transitional Bundled Service customers are also eligible to take service on Schedule E-FBD.
3. RECERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: Food Bank Facilities will be required to certify annually their eligibility for the PG&E Food Bank Discount by providing a copy of their Memorandum of Understanding executed with the California Department of Social Services that qualifies them to participate in The Emergency Food Assistance Program in California. Failure by any party to provide proper proof of eligibility will result in disqualification of applicant's eligibility to receive the E-FBD rate. In addition, it is the responsibility of the applicant to immediately notify PG&E if circumstances change such that they no longer fulfill or newly fulfill the eligibility requirements for participating in the E-FBD program under Special Condition 2, above. (T)

Per Rule 12.C, Food Bank Discounts are effective on the next full bill cycle upon notification of changes in service agreement eligibility. (N)
(N)

PG&E reserves the right to rebill customers who choose not to recertify, for previous discounts received for which the participant was not eligible.
4. MISAPPLICATION OF E-FBD: PG&E reserves the right to conduct random audits on the California Department of Social Service's foodbank website to determine applicants' eligibility. PG&E may rebill the account at the customer's/applicant's otherwise-applicable rate schedule for misapplication of E-FBD. Such rebilling shall not extend back more than the most recent three years, in accordance with gas and electric tariff Rule 17.1. However, nothing in this schedule shall be interpreted as limiting PG&E's rights under any provisions of any applicable law or tariff.

(Continued)