Third-Party Notification Service

Third Party Notification Service helps ensure your loved ones receive the gas and electric services that keep them safe and comfortable.

If someone you care for can't always keep up with bills, help see that their PG&E service remains uninterrupted. Take advantage of our Third-Party Notification Service.

Should that special person get a late notice, we'll do our best to let you know. You're not obligated to pay the bill—but you'll be alerted to contact PG&E to help resolve the problem. Use the form to sign up and know that your caring can make a difference.
