4. Customer and the ISP agree to an Exchange Fee, as specified in Exhibit A to this Agreement, that applies to each therm of gas delivered to Customer or accepted from Customer through the PG&E metering facility that connects with Customer and the ISP facilities. 5. Customer agrees to pay the Exchange Fee charges to PG&E per the billing, payment and collection provisions of PG&E's tariffs. PG&E agrees to pay the ISP the same Exchange Fee charges excluding PG&E's Revenue Fees and Uncollectible (RF&U) accounts expense.

G-ESISP SERVICE AGREEMENT

11. There is no specific termination date for this agreement. Service under G-ESISP will terminate if the ISP-PG&E Exchange Agreement between the ISP and PG&E is terminated, if service to Customer is terminated pursuant to the provisions of either PG&E's or the ISP's tariffs and agreements with Customer, or if Customer is not in compliance with the requirements of this Service Agreement. Once Exchange Service to Customer is terminated by either PG&E or the ISP, it will be considered terminated by the other, including all applicable agreements with the Customer. However, PG&E, the ISP and Customer will engage in a good-faith dispute resolution process upon request by one of the parties. The dispute resolution process is not required to occur prior to termination.
12. This agreement at all times shall be subject to such changes or modifications as the California Public Utilities Commission may direct from time to time in the exercise of its jurisdiction.
